Investors' Meeting for Business Strategy

Domestic Operations

Q. You closed the MMA

| O The week to the             | OF shows TDO: 1864      | high value added made in Mark       |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Q. The graph in slide explain | 25 shows TPC's shift to | high-value-added products. Would yo |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |
|                               |                         |                                     |

Q. There have been large fluctuations in the performance of your methyl methacrylate (MMA) business. What efforts, such as reducing procurement costs for the raw material, MTBE, are being made to improve profitability?

| Q. This time, work needs to be done to connect an ethane cracker with the plants of tRabigh Phase II Project. Are there any risks | :he |
|---|-----|
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |
|   |     |